HOW TO ACCESS THE DATABASE

The EBSCOhost databases can be accessed 24x7 from any PC where you have internet access. Go to <http://huntertafe.libguides.com/eresources>. Using the A-Z menu, select the letter E, and then scroll down to the EBSCO databases link. Log in using your TAFE Username and Password. Make sure the box next to the database(s) you wish to search is ticked. Then click on Continue.

KEYWORD SEARCH

To perform a basic keyword search, enter search terms in the search box. The default search option is "Find all my search terms".

Apply any limiters or expanders - for example, limit your search to full text articles or by date of publication. Click the Search button to begin the search.

BOOLEAN OPERATORS

Boolean logic defines relationships between terms in a query. The operators are AND, OR and NOT.

Select the search mode: "Boolean/Phrase"

- The AND operator combines search terms so that each search result contains all of the terms
- The OR operator combines search terms so each search result contains at least one of the terms
- The NOT operator excludes so the search result does not contain any terms that follow the operator

WILDCARDS/TRUNCATION

Wildcards allow you to match:

- both the singular and plural forms of a word
- words that begin with the same stem
- words that can be spelt in different ways

You can use the asterisk  symbol to truncate your search term. For example: Austral* will retrieve Australia, Australian, Australasian, etc.

The question mark ? stands for exactly one character. For example, analy?e will get results with spellings analyse and analyze.

RESULTS

When results are displayed, you can look at an individual result by clicking on the underlined text. The full text availability for that particular article will also be displayed.

To view a group of results, click on Add to Folder. These articles are retrieved by clicking on the folder icon at the top right of the results screen.

PRINTING

You can print individual articles by clicking on the Print button at the top of the screen.

You also have the choice to Email or Save individual articles. You can return to the result list by clicking on the Return to Result List link at the top of the screen.

OTHER SEARCHES

Using the Refine search, in the left-hand column, will enable you to improve your initial search. Click on the subject arrows to open more options.

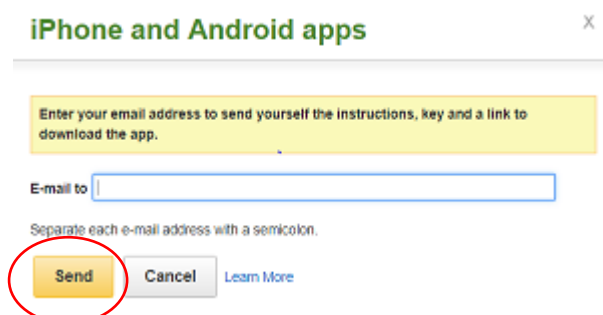

As an alternative to searching the entire database, you can search by browsing a list of subjects (the Subjects link) or a list of magazine or journal titles (the Publications link). Both links are located in the toolbar at the top of the screen.

ACCESSING eJOURNALS ON MOBILE DEVICES

To access an eJournal on a mobile device such as an iPhone, iPad, iPod Touch or Android, you need to have an app installed on your device. You can also download articles using Google Drive.

INSTALLING THE APP

1. After accessing the EBSCOhost database, scroll to the bottom of the screen and select the iPhone and Android apps link.
2. A pop up screen will appear. Enter an email address you can access on your mobile device, and Send.
3. An email with an authentication key will be sent.
4. Download the EBSCOhost app from the iTunes Store (iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch) or Google Play (Android).

5. Open your email on the device you are installing to, and click on the activation key link in the email. You will then be able to start using the app on your device.

SAVING PDFs

For EBSCOhost databases (ANZRC Plus) there are 2 options.

- You can Download the PDF to your device to read later.
