

Wagga Wagga's Mechanics Institute where early Technical College classes were conducted. This building later became the School of Arts and the original facade still exists being the former Anstice and Mackay mens wear shop.