

Learner's Guide

Generative Artificial Intelligence and Academic Integrity

How to use Generative Artificial Intelligence (Gen AI) to help you study

Before

(Connected or face to face) or online study

- Do background research and read for upcoming topics
- Summarise reading material and ask more questions about it
- Get questions ready for discussion or points to check with your teacher

(Connected or face to face) or online study

- Use during activities if allowed
- Ask more questions about content
- Talk to your teacher about the accuracy of generated content
- · Generate ideas
- · Translate from one language to another

Prepare for Assessments

- Research read background information about a topic
- Generate practice exam questions >
 Give your answers > Check correct answers
 > Ask for more explanation of correct answers > Generate more questions on areas that you need help with learning or understanding

After

(Connected or face to face) or online study

- Check facts and concepts
- Ask for examples of a concept
- Summarise notes or reading material
- Ask for a visual representation of an idea
- Ask for feedback on your written or verbal communication

Use caution when using Gen AI tools

When submitting content to Gen AI tools, remember:

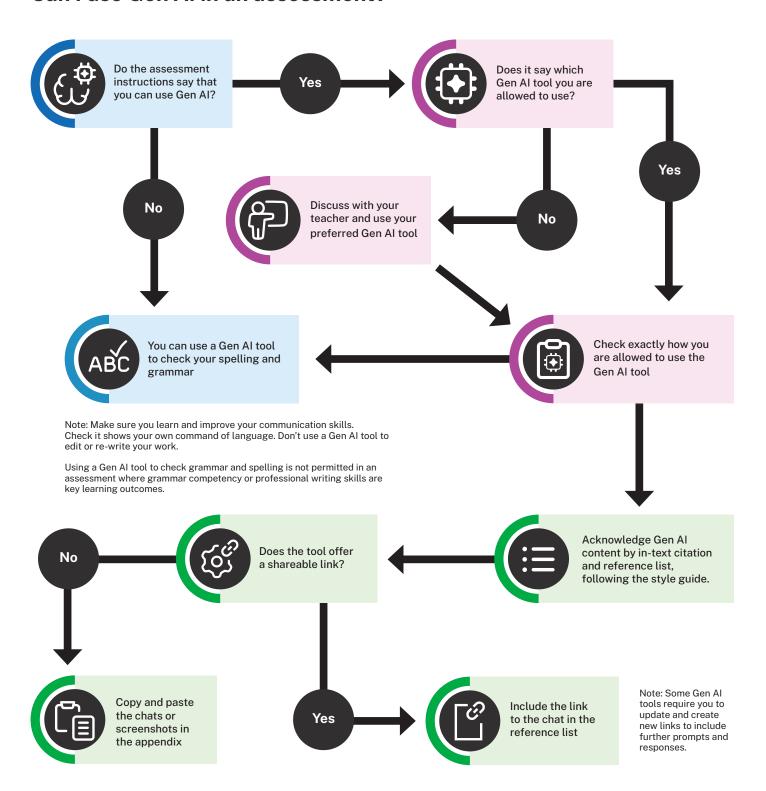

- Privacy -don't submit sensitive, personal information about yourself or others including names
- Check the policies of the Gen AI tool.
 If you don't want your work to be used in training of the tool, turn off the data sharing option if the tool permits
- Copyright don't input copyrighted material. This includes any TAFE NSW documents (assessments, learning materials etc)

Output

When viewing the generated content, remember:

- Don't trust everything that it tells you.
 Content that sounds plausible can be inaccurate
- Double-check information against another source to verify accuracy
- Consider any possible bias that could be in the content, relating to gender, religion, race etc

Can I use Gen AI in an assessment?

Generative AI and academic integrity resources

- · Learn more about Gen AI and appropriate use
- · How to reference Gen Al use

You can complete the right academic integrity module for you:

- Higher Education Learners
- Diploma of Nursing Learners
- · Learners from other courses